YOU CANNOT BORROW HOLINESS

Have you ever arrived at an important event only to discover your phone battery was at 1%? Suddenly, you wish you had charged it earlier! And with iPhones, it is even worse; the batteries are sealed! You cannot simply borrow someone else's battery at the last minute. You either came prepared with your phone fully charged and with your own power bank, or you didn't! Today's Gospel tells a similar story. Ten virgins await the bridegroom. Five are wise and bring extra oil; five are foolish and bring none. When the bridegroom arrives unexpectedly, only those who are prepared enter the wedding feast.

As we approach the end of the liturgical year, what is Jesus teaching us with this parable? The bridegroom represents Christ, the wedding feast represents eternal life, and the oil reminds us of the faith, love, and good works that keep our spiritual lives burning. The difference between the wise and foolish virgins is not that some were invited and others were not. All were invited, but not all were prepared.

Wisdom, as today's first reading reminds us, is more than intelligence. It is knowing what truly matters and living accordingly. A wise Christian does not simply believe in God but makes daily choices that reflect that belief. We cannot borrow someone else's holiness, prayer life, or relationship with God. Nor can we keep postponing conversion, assuming there will always be tomorrow.

Therefore, the question is personal: Am I preparing for eternity or merely planning for tomorrow? If Christ came today, would He find my lamp burning?

We must not wait until our spiritual battery reaches 1% to start looking for God. Charge your soul daily through prayer, the Eucharist, confession, and charity.

Fr. Val

LA SANTIDAD NO SE PUEDE PEDIR PRESTADA

¿Alguna vez has llegado a un evento importante solo para descubrir que la batería de tu celular estaba al 1 %? ¡De repente, te arrepientes de no haberlo cargado antes! Y con los ¨iPhones¨ es aún peor: ¡las baterías son selladas! No puedes simplemente pedir prestada la batería de otra persona a última hora. ¡O viniste preparado con tu celular completamente cargado y con tu propio cargador portátil, o no lo hiciste! El Evangelio de hoy cuenta una historia similar. Diez vírgenes esperan al novio. Cinco son prudentes y traen aceite de reserva; cinco son insensatas y no traen nada. Cuando el novio llega inesperadamente, solo aquellas que están preparadas entran al banquete de bodas.

A medida que nos acercamos al final del año litúrgico, ¿qué nos enseña Jesús con esta parábola? El novio representa a Cristo, el banquete de bodas representa la vida eterna, y el aceite nos recuerda la fe, el amor y las buenas obras que mantienen encendida nuestra vida espiritual. La diferencia entre las vírgenes prudentes y las insensatas no es que unas fueran invitadas y otras no. Todas fueron invitadas, pero no todas estaban preparadas.

La sabiduría, como nos recuerda la primera lectura de hoy, es más que inteligencia. Es saber lo que realmente importa y vivir de acuerdo con ello. Un cristiano sabio no solo cree en Dios, sino que toma decisiones diarias que reflejan esa fe. No podemos tomar prestada la santidad, la vida de oración o la relación con Dios de otra persona. Tampoco podemos seguir posponiendo la conversión, asumiendo que siempre habrá un mañana.

Por lo tanto, la pregunta es personal: ¿Me estoy preparando para la eternidad o simplemente estoy planeando para el mañana? Si Cristo viniera hoy, ¿encontraría mi lámpara encendida?

No debemos esperar hasta que nuestra batería espiritual llegue al 1 % para empezar a buscar a Dios. Carga tu alma diariamente a través de la oración, la Eucaristía, la confesión y la caridad.
